Keep track of your group's progress. From time to time, ask members for their feedback on how the group is going. Find out how useful they find it, how comfortable they feel, and their likes and dislikes about the group. Use this information to make adjustments. Share responsibility for the group. Letting others take leadership roles helps them feel more committed to and invested in the group.

Section 2. Creating and Facilitating Peer Support Groups

Create a group story word by word. Everyone should sit in a circle and contribute one word to the story during their turn. For example, the first person might say "birds," and the second might say "flew," and the third might say "by," and the fourth might say "my," and the fifth might say "window," etc.
